chase of Western lands in an expectation of a rise in the price, not that one-half or one third of the purchasers desire or expect to sell sgain, but that it is comfortable to know that the farm which is to support and educate a family will be worth more dollars per ore when the old man dies and leaves it to when the old man dies and leaves it to bit heirs than it was at the time of his acquiring it. The expected rise in the price of land is based upon an expected continuance of the flourishing condition of agriculture, or upon such an improved condition as may result from an extension of the American home market, and a consequent diminution of dependence upon the foreign markets, which, as the iree traders tell American farmers fix the vice of grain. If they do, it is plain that they will coase to do so when the American farmer fixes to home market capable of taking all or nearly all of his products. As it is he only exports thirty-eight out of every 100 bushels of the course which remains after he has supplied him seif with food to the winter and seed for the next spering. It is not so very long ago that he exported mext and sold least at home Still the free tracers who complain that England fixes the price of corn now that only about one third is exported would so restrict the home market by the reduction of American mean acturing centers as to cause two hirds to be sent abroad. The logic is very pecuhar, in lead.

two airas to be sent airond. The logic is very peculiar, in lead But men are not purchasing land in England, that free traders paradise with an expectation of an advance in price. The London Would thus notes one effect of free trade upon agriculture.

An example of the runous depredations of egricult ural land in f. neolashire was recently af forded when a farm with houses and buildings, in the neighborhood of Alford, was offered for sale, and the highest bid was only £1200, aithough the property cost £700 eighteen years ago and a considerable sum has since been expended in improvements.

Another English journal adds:
But it is not green fields alone that have suffered mills, manufactories and works, when withed to be disposed of, are found to have suffered a depreciation not less startling. When the bill of charges for free trade is fully summed up the general people of England will find they have paid dearly need for the Cobdenian gospel of competition and greed.

THE OROWN PAPER MILL

Work to Begin at Once on a $200,000 Plant-Oregon City.

Another enterprise for Oregon City. The latest addition to the industries of this thriving little manufacturing town is a $400,000 paper mill, which is to be constructed on the west side of the drawn lympid tells. civer immediately.

Last Friday Mr. P. H. Cragin, a thoroughly practical paper ring and machinist, arrived from Pennyan, N. Y., where he had for some time been in charge of C. & H. Itussell's big paper mill. Mr. Cragin is familiar with paper making in sil its branches, and will see that the mill to be erected at Oregon City is first class in every particular. In a few days Mr. Cragin will be joined by A. H. Tower, of Holyoke, Mass. The latter is the architect who had charge of the orection of the celebrated Tombs prison in New York. Ag engineer from one of the Wilsonsin paper manufacturing towns will also soon arrive. The follewing celebrated Tembs prison in New York. As empineer from one of the Wiscomsin paper manufacturing towns will also soon arrive. The folic wing description of the buildings and maching is a taken from the Oregon City Enterprise:

The building proper will be wing-shaped, the main part to be 150x60 feet, a story and a haif high. The wing will be 12x40 feet, two so ories high. Besides this building there will be a boiler from 40x50 feet, a story and a haif high. All buildings will be constructed with stone best-ments and brick wails and corrupated iron vools. Within the building there will be three 1-foot rotary boilers in which the straw will be reduced to pulp, the process requiring about ten hours. Five tone sead, is the capacity of the boilers, or about forty tons per day for the set. One of these can be work on manifia or white goods if desired.

From the boilers the pulp will pass to the beater from, in which will be four beaters of 1000 pounds capacity. The time required for each 1000 pounds capacity. The time required for each 1000 pounds a from two three hours. The capacity of the tall set of beaters will be about twenty tons per day. From the beaters it will pass to two large wooden pulp chests, each having a capacity of 5000 pounds. The next move will be to the refining engines, two in number, and then te the rinsing chests in which it is constantly agitated, and finally pumped out by four big brass pumps. It final stop is to the paper machines, two in number, each weighing 5,000 pounds. The capacity of the constantly agitated, and finally pumped out by four big brass pumps. About $7000. About $7000.

"We were weil pleased with this year's state fair," said Hon. J. T. Apperson. of Oregon City, president of the Oregon Brate Beard of Agriculture, to an Oragona an reporter year relative to the best fairs we have ever held. There has been a large increase in the attendance at the last two fairs. A year age we cut down the admission fee one-half, still the receipts have been as agree as ever, which proves that the attendance has doubled. This year the receipts have been as agree as ever, which proves that the attendance has doubled. This year the receipts were ever $15,000, which includes money spent for improvements, leaving us, inclusive of hast year's balance, a total balance of about $7000. It is guilt highly that additional improvements, will be ordered when the board meets in Doombor. Will be ordered when the board meets in Doombor. THE MANAGE OF WAR.

War in Europe is at all times among the possibilities. But it must be said that while the mighty armies are a menace of war they are in some sort a fledge of peace. War on a scale so vivit and supported by But it must be said that modern enginer; would produce slaughter hitherto unparalleled and therefore the apparent control tent the threat of waris a sort of seminance of peace is substantially true. Some time ago Professor Emile de Laveleye produced a book on 'The Actual Causes of War in Europe, which has become well known and has been widely quoted. In the October number of The Forum the same writer has published an article on Mutterings of War in in Which he gives reasons for believing that war is close at hand Yet he recogn zes the fact that the magnitude and destructiveness of war, and the knowledge hat it would probably make very great changes in the map of Europe, are among the influences that put restraint on the great military powers. Nevertheless, everyone is convinced, he says, that alany moment so hornole a war may break out that all other wars, even that of secssion in America will be child a play in compari and what is especially noticeable is the fact that even the pacific nations are preparing for it

As for France she has surrounded her capital and frontiers with a continuous line of intronchments Germany has made her gigantic fortresses of Metz Strasburg, May Italy is fortifring her Alpine passes and her seaports Belgium, to prevent her country from he ng the battle-field of the contending armies 'is spending 40 000,000 france in the construction of redoubts, with cupolas of steel, to close the passage by the Maas val ley, and the war budgets are everywhere in creasing in enormous proportions. The two principal questions that endanger me peace of Europe are those of Alsace Lor aine and the Eastern question. The first is not so manmently threatening as the seond which is father of danger being left to chance and the unforesten M do Laveleye suggests that the Alsace-Lorraine question might be estiled by forming with those provances and Belgium and Luxembourg a belt of ueutral states annexed by a federal the like the cantons of Switzerland These mentral states would constitute a harrier between France and Germany and thus pre-vent the communit friction between these powerful nations. But such a solution is most unlikely to happen as the Kaiser William has repeatedly declared that Ger-many will never give up an acre of land she has were by the sword

A nov view of the so-called Eastern ques tion is presented by M de Laveleve. He holds that the knot of the Fastern question at this time is Servia, as the central point of etion, and this is connected with the general Slav aspiration for national life. Every where this same desire for national unity, based on the identity of origin and races, is becoming a disturbing force but it is the Blav party in Russia which is also the war party whose measurit agrittions among the Balkan population are most to be dreaded And it is the Balkan question with Servia In the foreground, that is destined to bring Austria into collision with Russia 'Th question at the present moment is this, mays M de Liveleye Can Austria who has a greater number of Slavs among her population than of any other race, allow Massla to establish herself in the Balkun peninsula, the consequences more or less ote, of which would be the narceling out of Austria Hungary and the triumph of military powers profess to be desirous of Desce, but adds that "in this instance, as swerywhere else in history the situation is caused by the slow evolution of struggling forces, the distermining cause alone scems to depend on chance "

& JOLDY WEDDING PARTY

A actsotional event never called out a larger or more reputably curious crowd to this city, or, proportionally, in any other than that which packed the Exposition building Wednesday night to witness the "double welding" that was the principal ranged wenging. That was the brinched feature of the tyroning a programme. "The rains descended and the floods-came and the winds blew." but this combination of the elements falled to keep the people at home. They had been bidden wholesale, to the wedding and, not to be deterred by so trifling a electmentance as an October rainstorm, to the wedding they went they went.

It was a joily weeding party indeed, illustrative of a sim ple phase of human nature that few concentrative or condemn, since occurrence or condemn. tasion proves that it is an almost universal possession of the human family, but possession of the names turning, one which every one can enjoy as a harmless but rather good juke upon himself. Of the thousands who crowded the grand payillon on this accasion, but a few hundred were able, to hear the familiar words of the service or see the runs placed, but all heard the strains of Mendelscohn's wedding marsh as they were never before rendered in Portland, all caught the infecreindered in Portland, all caught the infec-tion of the general good will that pervades a wedding atmosphere, and though every man who went is included to excuse himself for going 'when there was really nothing to sea" on the ground of concession to his wife's peasure, and every woman who went "did not really case to go, but her husband exame home early, asked her if she was not going and seemed to expect her to accomcretly consecute of having gone in response to their own inclination and those who are reasons biy well acquainted with themselve and each other are pretty certain that they would go again under like attractive and movel circumstances

A BOLD PRESENTMENT

New York city has long been noted for the degradation of justice through its courts and the recent disclosures in the no orious Flack divorce case but adds another flagrant thuse under cover of the courts to a long me of conspiracies between criminals and our officials The presentment of the grand jury in connection with this case, however proves that one body at least engaged in the supposed administration of justice in that city has found courage to speak out boldly, place blame where it be tought, and induct ourst officials cample in ngs, and indict court offic air caught in this business as mercilessly is though it was dealing with hat-rack or hen roost bieves instead of men of position and re pecta This precentment by the grand jury de clares that there was a beinous and criminal conspiracy to procure a fraudulent divorce in which various officers of the cour were necessarily engaged It charges the judge with being culpable, negligent or criminally accessory to the crime—for such a flagrant by a name less harsh—in permit ting the conspiracy to succeed and while he is left to the legislature to be dealt with according to the measure of his in iquity, the lesser criminals are indicted Whether the legislature will take cognizance of the fac s presented and deal with this judge according to his deserts, or wnether the prosecuting officials of New York city who are proverbially tender in their dealings with scoundrels, will have sufficient sude pendence to pursue the investigation by bringing the effenders to trial 19 a matter of doubt. Read by the light of the records, the prosecution of these conspirators is by no medne assured It is perhaps too much to expect that an example be made of all of these criminals from the judge down, who rendered it possible for such a soundal as this Flack divorce case to go out under the seat of the court, but it would serve well the interests of justice and respond properly to a loud demand of common decency if the work begun by this grand jury—a pi enomenal one in hew York—at least were to be promptly and industriously followed to its just sequence. If it goes no farther, how ever, and it use process of time expres of manition it will still have proved that it is possible to take cognizance of crime of a low order among respectable cruminals in New York

CIEAR STATEMENT OF THE TARIFF

Representative Mason, of Illinois, n giv-ing an account of his recent discussion of the tariff question with Mr. Gladstone in

London, says

I must have looked like a man who could be converted to the British a de of the quest on for Mr (Lladstone said While we all admit that the United Status loads in population and material wealth, we have the great advantage of Delug a country mal italining a polle; of free trade I was country man naming a point, of free frade I was not cuite ready to surrounder the principles of proworkion at this suggestion, and replied Mr. Chapthon we look at the subject from different standpoints. If I were an Enghahman, depending on the markets of the world I would be a free trader. As an American, derivated freep in the home market for home manufacturers, I am a protectionals.

The Chicago Tribune says that if the tariff question were usually stated in this frank, tokin-cut way voters would not be befogged but could decide intelligently which system they consider most invorable to their inter

Why shouldn't Vr Gladstone be a pronounced freetrader? England can not produce food enough to feed more than half its people. To avoid famine and starvation it must import food avoid famine and starvation it must import food products in enormous quantities from other narions and of necessity it must have something to offer in exchange and being deficient in natural resources, except in iron coal and the turns to the manufacture of goods and wared lis interest sall in the direction of an exameded system of fereign exchange and commerce. To be able to manufacture expert and sell in orange markets—bundreds of millions worth of goods against competition from any quarter it is ust get rid of every tax or other burdes that would present cheapening its goods and wares to he un-

As a wise and patriotic Englishman it would be elso than a free trader But it does not to low at all that Mr Mason or any other patriotle Ameri can should desire Mr Gladstone's doctrine ap-plied in this country. This country feeds herself plied in this country. This country feeds herrely and always one a vast surplus of bread and meat to send abroad. Self anstaining and not capend ent upon foreign commerce for means of subsignence the I afted States may well make the development of home resources and not export inde the chief concern. With her two great exports—cotton and food products—dependent not a triff systems for support of life but on the necessities of other nations which cannot feed themselves but must import food or starve the United States can afford to partly close her doors agains cheap foreign gonts and undertake to develop a system of home ma nulacturing, even at the cost of dear goods and the attendant high wages

A BLASPHEMOUS NUISANCE

Members of that band of losel brawlers of Animores of the being of local prayers of East Portland, known as the Saivation Army are sgain under arrest for violating a city ordinance which forbids horn-5 owing on the stress the argument in their be-half is that in making these hideous noises they are worshiping God, and therefore should be unmolested. In fact they are not worshiping God at all but only making a noise for the purpose of attracting the attention of men. It is a method of trzy louis to beat the community out of a living for them selves. They are a public nuisance; and the authorities of East Portland are to be communitied for their efforts to abate it. If those variets want to go on with their hideous dir let them go away from the public streats and out into some solitary place, where they can beat their gongs and blow their horns and even fire guns and dance around a miristure even fire gune and donce around a miriature feu d'enfer to their hearts content. But this wouldn't satisfy them. They can 'wor ship God only by distracting decent neople with an infernal neise. That is their system and a lawyer of good name ought not to lend humself to defense of it, even for a lawyer's pty. At a matter of fact a city has a right even to forbid the worship of God in a disorder, moreon, but the content of t a disorderly manner but the met od of the Salvation Army is no more the wrelnp of God than is the dance of a bevy of witches around a cauldron of hell broth Chinamen have hitherto been refused

PURE BRED BERKSHIRE PIGS. Mr. Donald Macleay Yesterday Received Three of the Rare Swine.

The good ship Emerdale, which left Liverpool The good ship Enerdale, which left Liverpon May 24 last, for this city, arrived yesterday afternoon. The arrivel of this ship was halled with delight by Mr. Donald Maclear, who immediately boarded her and making his way for ward feasted his eyes for some time on three £ is porkers confined in an improvised sty.

The pigs are pure-bred Berkshire, and were ear-fully selected from the best herds in England by the secretary of the British Perkshire Assoc aenrefully selected from the best herds in England by the secretary of the British Berkshitz Assoc nion, st. Mr. Muchay's special request, and were channed at no as all expense. In the shipment there are two sows and one boar. The two hi is are by littleworth from Westphalla, which makes them thoroughly here. They were farcow at October 22, 1888, and were just in nice condition the control of t poss of Improving the breed of Herkshires in O.c. gon.

The first Berkshire imported to this state was any Corbett & Madeny, about fifteenlycars are. It was a boar and on its arrival was tent to the owners' place at Jefferson, Or., where it was kept some time and then disposed of to Mr. Cross, a stockman of Salem.

The papers that were sent on ahead of this constrainment of blooded stock are very volum now. The pedigree, registry, invoices, consul's certificate, ship's receipt, etc., etc., are written out at great length.

BIS FIRST DRINK OF CHAMPAGNE. It Bested Him and He Swore Off in Favor of Claret.

There was one man at the foueral directors' banquet Tuesday night who had never before tasted chompagne. He was a short, slender speciacion man, past the middle ago. The first while course was white wine, then came claret. The dittle man sipped these to his heart's centent midt he was interrupted by a watter putting a special of ice into his champagne bumper, and followed by filling it with the chrevescent virtage. That puzzled he little man. He revered his eyes or the high wine until the foamy crast has the course of the high wine until the foamy crast has a loss for cause and affect, and seemant he had been a loss for cause and the first of the deduction, and with more abscript the response, replaced the glass on the table, had when he had recovered from the shock given by the zest of the wine, he turned to a young man beind and inquired.

"Ges whillikens, young feller, what in — and

"Champagne, eir," ropied the young mon, working hard to coursin a threatened outliers of working hard to compain a intreateness of the insulator.

"Wash, 171 be not swizzied!" cjaculated the spectacled man. "The dariastion stuff like to took my broadbing away. You don't ketch me drinking champagne, you bet you don't.

Its kept his word, and whenever the waiter came along with the champagne bottle he told him to fill the claret glass.

He was supposed by those who gathered around to be insane, and was placed in a wagon and taken to the county jail. On the way he recovered consciousness, and, on being examined, it was found that the only injury he had received was a slight scanp wound.

He was seen at the jail by a reporter, and stated that he had been suffering from maintis for sorre times and had been taking a great deal of quhire, so much, in fact, that his henring was impaired. He rooms at Mrs. Castro's, and Dr. K. A. J. S. C. Keuzie, who has been attending him, advised bits togo to a hospital, but he did not wish to go, and Mrs. Castro said ane would care for him if he was not sick with typhoid fever. When she visited his room yesiseday morning he said he was very sick and wished the dector would hurry op I is soon become delirious, and while she was go to after the doctor had been a self-sid last evening, and in a high fever. He will probably be sent to the hospital today.

There is not a city in the territory of Washington that is attracting the attention of Rastern capitalists that Fort Townsend now is. Such world wide bankers as Komits facts, of New York, or such was a Samuel M. Janary strong men who have invested in Port Townsend in the pastalt weeks to two months. One of these monitoring put in $70,000 in clean cash. One-baif million $60° har would not cover the amount of Eastern cash that has found ladgment in this city by the sea. The Union Pasific officials, and other railrand men, are heavy buyers there. The abrewdest speculators in the cominty believe that Fort Townsend withspeedily repeat the fastory of Sattle and Tacome. The prominent men in Port Townsend are anxions to have Portland capitalists interested. To this end Mr. J. E. Clark, president Puget Sound Loan & Investment Comdany, and M. P. Ward, a leading attorney, will be at the Esmond this week, solely to acquaent poople with Townsend opportunities. PORTLAND, FRIDAY, OCT. 11.

ingl constitutions of the Australasian colonies the old British system of open voting had been imported a system adapted to a high property qualification, a restricted franchise and a small electorate. As the colornes grew in population the masses became the tools of classes, as without the bal-lot the multitude dared not vote openly against the money lenders, or those pos-sessed of official authority, or con-picuous political or social influence. The electors were oversiwed by politicians or their agents, and either voted for their tyrants or refused to exercise the right of open suffrage. This state of things came to be so intolerable that finally the Australian ballot system was adorted, whose main features are as follows Prior to the day appointed for election polling booths are selected and publicly an-nounced. These are taken possession of early on the morning of election by the returning officer and his deputies, none of whom have a vote or are in any way con-cerned in the election, except in case of a tie, when the returning officer gives a casting vote. The returning officer (or deputy) seats himself at the table with his poil clerk seath nimeelt at the table with his poil tiers and one 'scrittineer' appointed by each candidate if he choose, the 'scrutineer' being a non voter Nobody else is allowed in the polling booth The returning officer has before him the electoral roll on which are registozed the names and descriptions of all qualified electors, arranged and num-bered in alphabotioni order. He also has a corresponding number of printed ballot papers containing the names of the caudi dates in siphabetical order and a plainly printed direction to the voter, instructing him to draw a line through the names of the candidates for whom he does not wish to The ballot-box, a large wooden with a slit in the top stands the table in front of the returning officer, who alone has the key of it. In another part of the room, but in view of the eturning officer, there is a screen be hind which is a writing table or shelf, and asupply of hine pencils. At the hour app unted for opening the poll, a constable opens the door of the polling booth and the young begins. The elector walks in, states his name in full, and answers any questions the returning officer may put to him for the purpose of identifying him on the electoral roli. The returning officer then checks him off on the roll and gives him a ballot paper from the electoral roll on the corner of the paper, and gummed it down The elector takes the paper, goes behind the screen draws a blue pencil line through the names of the candidates whom he does not wish to vote for, comes out with the paper folded in his hand, drops it into the six in the lid of the ballot box At the hour for closing the poll the constable abuts and locks the door of the booth. Blind or otherwise physically increable electors, or those who not read, are entitled to the assistance of the returning officer if they ask for it. The voting over the returning officer unlocks the bal-lot-box, and, with the assistance of his poil clerk and in the presence of the "sorut-meer," counts the votes All papers are re-jected as informal on which the names of all the candidates beyond the number to be sat the candidates beyond the number to be elected are not struck out, or on which all the names are struck out or on which any-thing has been written or marked except the pencil mark through the names or which have been tampered with in any way The candidate whose name has been left without a pencil mark through it by the greatthe district, is the successful candidate. As soon as the poll has been officially declared, the returning officer, who has had the papers in Als possession all the while, seals them up and posts them to the clerk of parliaments. a highly responsible non-political officer at the seat of government who after keeping them for the time prescribed for disputing elections, burns them

This method of voting secures absolute privacy to the voter No one is allowed be-

In the screen with the electre, the officers
I the polls and the "scrutineers" are not llowed to speak or make a sign, and all in timidation must be done outside the polling booth. Threats directed against the voter are punished by a long term of im prisonment. The taws against intimidation and tribery are very severe. When the voting takes place, the returning officer marks ting takes place, the returning officer marks on the corner of the ballot paper the number owhich stands against the elector's name on the electoral roll and gums it down so that it cannot be seen before giving the paper to the voter. This is absolutely necessary in order to prevent or detect personating or double voting. If it were not done, there would be nothing a prevent a man priling at would be nothing o prevent a man voting at every booth in the district or representing hi-nseif as another elector after having voted done, but it is invariably detected and defeated by the simple device of writing the number of each voter in the corner of the bal of paper and at the same time checking of the number on the roll. The number is or unadded down at the time when it is writ-ten and is never uncovered, unless persona-tion or double voting takes place, when a comparison of the check marks ou the election rai rolls having given the ciue the ballot pa tear off the corner of the ballot paper with the number on it because they had been told they could be dontified, and the way they had voted could be discovered, by the number. The sole result of that maneuver was that the mutildied parers were rejected, and the timid voters were disfranchised for that election by their own act.

This numbering of the ballot paper is necessary for the projection of honest voters against fraud, but it does not affect the against frauc, but it does not affect the secrecy of the ballot, because no one has possession of the ballot papers except the returning officer, and he is forbidden under heavy penalties to look at the numbers after he has gummed them down or in any way to water the accept of the buildway to violate the secreey of the ballot

This is the Australian ballot system as described by Edward Wakefield in the October Forum As a protection of voters against ir timidation it has many features to commend its approval As a preventive of bribery it probably is as effective as any six ten would be Of course given a man will ing to sell his vote, and another willing to biy it bribery can take place without de-tection, if both parties to the crime man tain complete silence. Nevertheless the b-lber, since he cannot watch how his man votes, is never certain how he voted as he could and probably would sell his vote the other side for a larger sum, pocket both bribes and vote as he pleased, since his ballot was absolutely a 'secret' vote To make sure of his bribed men an vote To make sure of his bribed men an agent brings them to the booth in a body, and sends the first in with instructions to put a puece of blank paper into the ballot box instead of his ballot paper and to bring the ballot paper out to him the agent This involves the sacrifice of one vote, but this involves the sacrifice of one vote, but this involves the sacrifice of one vote, but this involves all the others. The second man against the first man's ballot paper, which has previously been examined by the agent to nake sure that it is correct, into the ballot box, and brings out his own. The third man puts that in, and brings on another, and so on until the tale is exhausted and so on until the tale is exhausted

As a practical experiment the "scoret" ballot has proved a suggest in Australia. At one time there was a fleroe nontest over the question whether all the children should be offered secular education at the hands of the state or whether the Roman Catholic clergy were to receive a portion of the pub-lic taxes for the support of their denomina-THE AUSTRALIAN BALLOT SYSTEM.

A YERY CLEAR SWIND!

Wednesday sitermoon a large number of people were swindled in a way that anyone with ordinary d accriment should have seen through. A fellow obtained a license to sell soop on the street. He soon had a crowd about him and then his harvest commenced. He apparent vroile tup a plece of soop with five ten and twent; dellar bills and sold them to those in the crowd who were foolish enough to bay for Jann 1819. A 'greeny' would by three packers is 6, and thun the fakir would by three packers is 6, and thun the fakir would by one of them back for $5 and when he opened it was found to contain $20. But the purchases never found any such a sum in any speciage. The fellow in a few ours cleaned up about $1.00 He. worked seyeral crowds in different paris of the city. When he got all he could out of one crowd he would troys some where clear, At every place he found if reads whether, Some means should be provided by which these humbures would not be permitted to suppear on the streets.

Judge Shattuck heard the arguments yesterday afternoon on the babeas corpus settion of J N Purker N Simonson Walter Hayes, Ed McDon ald and John Camahad members of the Salvation Army who are in the city jell for violating the how ordinance to prevent the playing of binds on this streets. It is understood the dectation will not be rendered until to morrow at J A M These parties are still confined in the city juil and will not accept bell A large portion of their time is spent in dinging and praying the july being converted into a kind of barrack. They are visited and encouraged by their friends and seem to be in the best of sprint. At the barracks services goright shead.

THE NEW CHRISTIAN MINISTER. Rider R. M. Mussick the new Christian min isler, will arrive in this city to currow and begin his labors in this field bunday next by preaching his labors in this field bunday next by preaching in the Christian church on it corner of Tenth and J streets lie is reported to be one of the sellest and most cloquent speakers in that denomination. The Christian church in this city has had recently fitted up to build me on Fenth and J streets and now has a nest and commodisus chape! Under the watchint patterage of the new minister the church is certain to prosper. This church never had a regular pastor, and her Messeck will be the first.

CAPIURED TWO BEUGARS. CAPTURED TWO EXCOANS.

Policeman Cox marched two able bodied mento the city jail yeaterday, and incredible as it may seem, they were arrested for buggling for money to bourth street, in front of the Arcade restaurant. They would strike nearly every man who estus along the street for money and had kept this up for about an hour when they were arrested it is evident the men wanted to be arristed so as to rest something to eat at the expense of the city if it is possible these men abound be placed at hard labor and perhaps they would not court arrest again in East Portland

EXCUBSION TO MOUNT TABOR. EXCURSION TO MOUNT TABOR.

The Williamette Bridge Railway Company ten dered the Oregon Presbyterly, that has been in seasion in this city an invita ion to go out to Mount Tabor on the motor line and the invitation was accepted to go yesterday afternoon Quite a large delegation went on the excursion and all expressed themselves delighted with the trip at the beauty of the out Irry. What called out the most surprise was the number of new cottags all the way out to Mount Tabor, and the palattat residences being built at the summit of this ismous elevation.

Berlin Notes.

Brants, Oct. 9.—The strike of the dock laborers at Flensburg shows no sign of settlement. Soldiers from the garrison and a number of specifiers who were brought from other places are unloading vessels.

The omerors to-day received the members of the North sea canal commission at Kiel. He atterward proceeded to Haitena and made an inspection of the mouth of the canal.

An Aristocrastic Gambling Room Invaded.

Maddin, Oct. 9.—In the course of acrusade against gambling a judge to-night entered the Castne, one of the most aristocratic clubs in the city. He found the rooms full of senators, deputes, generals, indges and other distinguished persons, all of whom made a vigorous protest against his action. The result of their precisions was that only four men were arrested.

Germans Ordered to Leave.

BERLIN, Oct. 8.—The dispatches from Davaras-land say that the native chief has ordered all Germans to quit the country and has setted the German indistonaries as bostages for the a siety of the native agents imprisoned by the Germana.

PARIS. Oct. P.—It is stated here that the Argentine government is about to sign a convertion with the members of the syndicate of 1886 for a loan of 40,000,000 francs.

INJUNCTION SUIT BEGUN.

An Action Brought Against the Northern Pacific Railread Company,

By the Oregon Short Line and Utah Northern Bgilway Cos. - The Complaint-Will Make a Test Case.

Suit was began in the United States circuit court yesterday by the Oregon Short Line and Utah Northern Builway Companies against the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, to have them restrained from making unjust discrimination, and refusing to afford plaintiffs, reasonable and proper facilities for the interchange of business, both passengers and freight, between the respective lines of the defendant and p ain-

The complaint is voluminous, and after setting forth the routes of the different rail-roads involved and their connections, etc., elleges that for some time past the defend-ont has refused, and at present refuses, to afford plaintiff reasonable, equal and proper facilities for the interchange of traffic, both passengers and freight, and for forwar ling and delivering of the same to and from the several lines of plaintiff to the lines of defendant and others connecting therewith, and has unduly and unreasonably discriminated against plaintiff by refusing te receive and handle such traffic tendered to it at Portland by plaintiff on the same terms and conditions that it handles similar traffic destined to the same point.

It is specifically charged that the defendant has refused to transport freight tendered to it by plaintiff, originating an points east of the 97th meridian and destined to points on the lines of the defendant's railways north of Portland when such freight was in cars other than those of defendant's, unless plaintiff would assume to pay to the road owning such cars the usual mileage for the use of such cars, or would transfer such freight unless plaintiff would assume to pay to the road owning such cars the usual mileage for the use of such cars, or would transfer such freight unless plaintiff would prepay the charges of defendant has refused to receive such freight unless plaintiff would prepay the charges of defendant for transporting the same from Portland to destination, sill of which is atleged to be contrary to the custom and practice in force among railways generally, and contrary to the custom and practice in force among railways generally, and contrary to the custom and practice in force among railways generally, and contrary to the custom and practice in force plaintiff and defendant, as to all traffic originating on the lines of plaintiff and connecting lines west of the 97th meridian.

It is further alleged that defendant refuses to receive and transport for the Southern Pacific Company when delivered at Portland, freight originating to the cast and west of the ninety seventh meridian destined to the defendant of the cast of the fine of the defendant of the ninety seventh meridian destined to the s

FROM BAD TO WORKE. One of the Times When It is Idle to Reston With Man in His Downward Career, MACLEAT, Or., Oct. 10, 1839. in spite of all efforts to the contrary the world is rapidly going from bad to worse. Now, right in the face of a recent manifesto to the world, issued from Salem by the "union" party of Oregon, which plain y informed everybody that under the abuses of republican a iministrations we have become a nation of "knaves," wriggling like help-less hiliputians under the exections of "x-and monopolies," and crawling on our belies in the very lowest depths of "pauperization and degredation," here comes Washington, our queenly sister across the Columbia and the very lowest depths of "pauperization ond degredation," bere comes Washington, our queenly sister across the Columbia, and gives a majority in favor of that very partly of "knaves" nearly twice as large as at any other election during her history!

There are times. Mr. Editor, when fiscems idle to reason with man in his downward career, and this is one of the times.

I don't feel like pleading any longer, and fit his government of knaves by knaves and for knaves wants to deliberately go to the knaves, and, especially, if Washington sees fit to plange headiong into "pauperization and degredation" by electing a legislature serventy-five majority on joint build, it must not blame me nor the "minon" party of Oregon.

When giant monopolles and frusts have combined to quadruple the prices of all the necessaries of life, and gaunt famine ralks intrough the land like a hideous ghost of our fathers used to enjoy. I may and see we have no rights remaining which our fathers used to enjoy. I measured to graffer the proble suffer.

The Leader of the Confedersor Contradicts the English General's Statements.

Mr. Davis, in North American Review for October. There is not a shadow or a shado of truth in 10 Lord Wolseley's statement that I began my duties as president of the Confederary with "the avowed expectation that 10,000 Enfield rifies would be sufficient to overawe the United States." It is a fact of ineffaceshle record that I publicly and always printed a long and bloody struggle, and for that reason was often criticised and rensured by the more ardent advectase of with these hopes the boom is repidly increasing in its force, and fortunes are being easily made in advancing land values.

FIERCE FOREST FIRES.

Destruction of Timber That Will Cause Loss to a Generation.

Notes of General Interest Gathered From Newspapers in Oregon and Idaho-Mormons in Malad Valley.

Idaho County Free Press.

The fire in the timber south of Grange-ville, Idaho, had been cradually spreading and drawing near to the settlements on the ville, Idaho, had been cradually spreading and drawing near to the settler sents on the foothills for the past mouth. On Friday last a stiff wind was blowing from the southwest and the settlers all day long, with the assistance of parties from Grangeyille and Mount Idaho, lought the fire, which was threatening the properties of Jo Cash and Mrs. Eastman. The fires in this neighborhood were got under control about nightfall Friday evening, and then commenced a fight to save the mill property of W. W. Bow man. About a dozen men from Grangeyille and Mt. Idaho were on the ground to assist the local settlers and all night long the war against the devouring flames was kept up. It was found that the best way to fight fire was with fire, and backfires were started, which materially shied in checking the flames. At one time, about 3 ofclock featurday morning, it looked as though the mill property was doomed. On the wost side of Three Mile creek was a solid rule of fire, with the flames rising forty and fifty feethigh, while the sit was filed with flying cluders and bizing brands. At one time the old shop at the mill took fire from flying sparks, but one or two buckets of water extingus shed the flame. Just as the morning began to dawn the advance of the fire at this point saturday morning.

The weak of fighting the fire was rendered douby hard by the stiff wind, which carried sparks distances of from a quarter to a half mile, where they would iguite and epread. Eunday morning the welcome rain tame and extinguished the fires.

No houses were burnt, but the timber that was destroyed will be a severe loss to the nort generation, if not to this.

the "rainy season." Much of this hurry is caused by the misconception of many of the new-comers of the nature of our winters, many seeming to expect a continuous flood for four or five months, instead of a series of showery or drizzly days that rarely interfere with out door work. From eight to twelve business houses are to be erected on Eighth street inside of four weeks from election day, the material being on the ground for a porton of them.

General McMicken and wife are making quite a prolonged slay on their ranch two miles up the Hoquiam. The general is an accomplished sortisman, and is playing havoc with the feathered tribes.

During the last two weeks there has been several quite extended explorations in the hitnerto unknown north, and the real importance of Hoquiam as an industrial and commercial center, improves with every report. It is now known that away up the Humptulips and the Hoquian, river, from twelve to thirty miles, there are quite extensive praire lands of great fertility, wide and layer bottom lands with but a continon growth of vine maple and adder, and hundreds of square miles of the fuest timber on all this worderful turber country. This year region west and southwest of the rouged Olympics, has remained until quite recently, a veritable terra incognita, but it recent exploration immensely broadens the scope of Hoquiam's posibilities, us this must be the outlet of all this wast country. The nature of the Pacific coast forbils access to the broad waters that wash the shores of the commercial world.

fair is furnished by Mr. Henry Guild, editor of the Silverton Appeal:

The Batte Greek at it, closed on the 5th inst. Butte Greek at Marquam-ville, is situated in the southeastern part of Clackamas county, and is about sevan miles cast of Silverton, and equally distant from Mt. Angel, on the narrow gauge, which is the shipping point for the Butte Greek section.

The country surrounding Butte Creek is without doubt the most fertile section in Clackamas county, as the exhibits bore ample testimony. The farmers who contributed to the fair are also among the best of their class in the state, being as a rule, well-to-do, wide-awake and practical husbandmen. Five years ago a few of these "soit taklers" got together, and it was proposed half jestingly, to "lave a fair." As a result they met and exhibited heir products, and felt encouraged to orga size, which they did by incorporating the Eutte Greek Agricultural Soc ety. They now own an exposition building and a small trait of land, and contemplate the purchase of ninety-four acres adjoining their present possessions. This will give them room for a larger pavition, stock sheds, race course a fec. TACOMA, Oct. II.—The curious mistake c.

rational Oct. 11.—The curious mistake of confounding the representation of King and Pierce counties in the recent nominating convention at Walla Walla with the number of members from the two counties in the joint legislature to assemble at Olympia on the 6th of next month occurred in my len. of the 8th inst. from Seattle. King county has the largest representation in the legiclature, as it had in the nominating convention, thirty-five in the latter. Pierce and Spokane thirty-five in the latter. Pierce and Spokanu had twenty-six each at Walla Walla. IChing county will have five senators and eight resentatives at Olympia, thirties in oil. Pierce will have three senators and six five resentatives. The latter is the only countries the coly countries. resentatives. The latter is the only couin the new state with a democratic representation in both branches of the legislature brought about by republican ring nontions in Tacoma, which, it is safe to will not occur again. The county gave his mijority for Wison, and is always reliable republican, except when unfit nominate are made. Spokane county has one meaning the point legislature than Pierce, by reason of its being joined to Sievens as the First senatorial district, the two countinations having a joint senator. Three senators in having a joint senator. Three senators in member in the joint legislature than Pierce, by reason of its being joined to Sievens the First senatorial district, the two constants the First senatorial district, the two constants having a joint senator. Three senators and six members of the house of representatives come from Spokane county alone.

The national census of 1890 will cause come wonderful changes to be made in the representation at Olympia. Section 3 of article 2 of the constitution requires the legislature to apportion and district anow the members of the senate and house of representatives after the national enumeration. If the population of Tacoma increases in the next year in the same ratio as it has this year, it will have the largest representation of any city in the next legislature to be elected. King, the largest county in appulation in the new state, has now more outlying towns then Pierce, and has always been more thickly populated. It is a better agricultural county. Seattle will have to look well to her laurels or Tacoma will sarely pass her.

This remluds me that I met Dr. G. B. Calboun, of Skagit, on Pacific avenue yesterday, who laughingly and that he fold A. A. Denny, of Seattie, some months ago that he thought Tacoma was getting away with Samelie in population. Mr. Denny promply withat the idea was ridiculous, and that he remains that the idea was ridiculous, and that he remains that the was wiffing to upon Dr. Calboun said he was wiffing to wager a new hat that the vote of Tacom, would be equal to that of Scattle. Mr. Denny accepted the wager. As the vote was over 500 more in Tacoma than in Scattle he had to pay, and was as much chagrined an Dr. Calboun was pleased at his new hat.

It looks now as if the three great centers of copulation in the new state are going to be Spokane Falls in the cast and Tacoma and Scattle in the west, although it would be just as well to "keep your eye on Pasco," he well as the towns on Bellingham bay and the Gray's harbor country. The truth is the imanigrants coming in are apreading themselves considerably.

Mr. Richard Harding Davis contributes to the Boston Herald the following story of an English planger who squandered a colossal fortune in two years: Mr. Earnest Benson, or 'Juggina' Benson, or the Julilee Plunger, as he is variously called, was first pointed catro me one evening in London at the Em-pire music hall. Some of his impressions of this trip are deeply interesting. He says: "I am at one with Osear Wide as regards his opinion of the organ. He was disappointed with the Atlantic. I detested the Bay of Brans. Mellierranean and Red sea. The deadly the discemioris a fellow has to put up with," and "G.braitar," a "riserable dirty place, chief attactions of which are a lot of hig guas that make a hideous row when fired." In Australia he like! the racing arrangements, but dropped £4600 to the book-makers. At loo in one evening he lost £25,000, but a Jew money lender set him on his financial legs with a loan of £30,000 at a "ridiculous rate of usury. On the whole his Australian trip cost him £65,000, but he says he had "a real-good time."

The year affer his grand tour he came of age with the following sensations: "I was almost beside myself with delight. Within I wenty-four hours of being in a position, I might say of servitude, I found myself my own master and in possession of heaps of money, of the value of which I had not the reirotest lites."

HIS BACING CAREER.

Mr. Benson then opens his most interesting chapter, that on his racing experiences. "The first race meeting that I attended as a men of full age was the Epsom spring meeting, at which I lost about £6000 upon Carlton, and got eased of a valuable scarfpin at the same time. At the Jubilec stakes, at Keanpton, where I backed Bendigo to win 16,000, the people were vory angry with me for the high way in which I was betting. It was here I was first called the "Jubilec Plunger," a name I hate, although now I am accustomed toit. In fict, I got into trouble with owners all round for interfering with their markets, but I soon got taught better than that. Bendigo won, and I had another good week, and, consequently, srrived at the conclusion that raching was the best game in the world."

Liwas at this meeting that the Plunger met Bir George Chetwynd, the sporting nobleman, who had just been acquitted of chestling in turl matters by the somewhat curious verdict of not guitty and I larthing damages. The Plunger considers him the best friend he has had. At Goodwood he hacked "wrong 'unst' continually, and dropped £20,000 on the week, and £30,000 on the fortnight. He explains later that "many of the foolish things I did racing, were done in the stupid ballef that I knew better than other neople. This was my reason for constantly refinsing advect that would have saved me from many a fall. Of course, at the continually refinsing advect that would have saved me from many a fall. To questions put to him, Mr. McClure, and is reply in detail, in the interesting manner which follows:

"There is no doubt," writes Mr. McClure, that the most popular line, of reading matter is the religious line. The novels that have had the largest sale are all hooks that take up distinctively moral is ues, like that we find in Ben Hur. Robert Eismere, and Uncle Tom's Cabin." Here oe the idea to have a series of novels that would take up Bible history is, to my way of thinking, the most attractive way of securing a large andence. The Bible is, perhaps, the most generally known book in the world; more people read it than any othe.

thors to make this series. It has decided to take up the most dramatic and interesting parts in the Old and New Testaments. The first point was to select the right men. There was one man who was not only a profound scholar and a great writer, but who had made a special study of that part of libble history contained a Exodus, and particularly in regard to the whole journey from Egypt to Palestine. He had twice traveled over the ground traversed by the described over the ground traversed by the darracted universal attention among students of Egyptian history. This able and brilliant man was Georg Ebers, whose novels are not only a popular success, but they are regarded as so by the most entirent critics. The Eccury Test, which is conceded to be a strong and reliable, as well as a conservative critic on literary matters, said of Mr. Ebers' novel "Uarda; "8".

"It is perhaps not extravagant to say that there is no finer piece of work of its kind to existence. The book is a rayishing one to read—an absorbing, extraneing thing, which ought to command the attention of all intelligent readers."

I went to Europe, and by offering Dr. Ebers a lerger price than he had ever received before, arranged with him for a novel of the period I have referred to. Etrangely enough, he had been collecting material for such a novel for seventeen years, and had only to put the work logethr. Ho had present the exploring and investigating the whole at the exploring and investigating the whole abbect, and he had written a book entitled the refore, prepared for the work as soon as the idea was suggested to him. Had is an enthusiastic worker. The idea took entire possession of him and he felt the inspiration of the movement of great bodies of reality, the Red Sea scene and the wanderings in the wilderness. While the title of the book is Joshua, 'the infletence of Moses' is distinctly felt throughout.

CHARLES STUART PARNELL

The Vast Influence He Exerts in Ireland. The Vest Influence He Exerts in Ireland, William Clarko in New England Mogazine for Gerober.

In no other country in the world does any one man now wield the influence which Mr. Parnell exerts in Ireland. Bismarck and Chadstone are the only two personalities beside Parnell who dominate over large masses of them. But within Hamarck for Glad. of men. But neither Bi-marck nor Glad-stone can nominate and elect candidates for scores of constituencies, or carry the votes of his party in his pocket. Both these things Purnell does. There is really next lo no freedom of election in Ireland. If a parliareadon of election in Ireland. If a parliamentary vacantey occurs nothing is done till Mr. Parnell is consulted. He decides who the candidate shall be, and the person's selected by him is mominated and elected without the votes being in any way considered. Thus Mr. Parnell's party is dependent upon line, and each man owes to him something very like personal allegiance. As a resust of this the Irish members are mere delegates, whose votes are at Mr. Parnell's disposal. The most signal illustration of this occurred in the divisions in parliament on the royal grants. Mr. Labouchere and the radicals, representing the undoubted sentiment of every radical in the country and of not a few conservatives, opposed resolutely any further grants to royalty. One would have supposed that the Irish, among whom there is much republications.

opposed resolutely any further grants to royalty. One would have supposed that the Irish, smong whom there is much republican sentiment and who certainly owe no lavors to royalty, would have voted with the radical party; more especially as it is the radical who have especially as it is the radicals they followed him like a flock of support the royal grants; he ordered his party to vote with him, and, much to the disgust of the radicals; they followed him like a flock of sheep. There is secretly greatiritation among some of the Irish members at this despotic rule; but no one dares at present openly rebel, or Mr. Pa nell would speedily had means to stence the rebel, and probably eject him from the party.

There are many people in England, there are, I know, some men of intelligence even in America, who seriously believe that Mr. Partiell is a dazgerous revolutionist in fayor of a policy of violence. There enmot be a more absurd deluxion, as the evidence in the tedious Partiell commission has abundantly shown. All advanced people in England only wish that Mr. Parnell mean any definite politics he is unquestionably conservative and merely indional. It is this fact which has largely bevered the Irish movement from Continental suparative half progressive people in Europe sympathize with Ireland as against the Bri ish government; but they take comparatively fittle interest in a struggle which wears or them not only a merely local but a distinctly conservative character; The truth probably is that they man the average Irish sentiment. ative character. The truth probably is that Mr. Parnell does represent better than any other man the average Irish sentiment. Irishmen generally are not even radical, still less revolutionary; they love to get hold of property, and when rich are as conservative as any prophe in the world. Given a people largely conservative, a backward economic condition, and in absence of sound segments knowledge and the Parnell band. economic knowledge, and the Parnell tend ership is the best kind of result you are likely to bave.

Dr. Johnson was, however, a landsman, while many of the following expressions are the opinions of sea-faring people: "He who trusts himself on the sea is either a fool or he is poor or he wants to die." This Gallicism is no stronger than the following saying by the maritime Dirichmen: "Better on the heath with an old cart than at sea with a new ship." "Better walk poor than to sail rich," says the Spannarc, and in the same spirit his Italian heighbor responds, "Fraise the sea, but stay on shore." This the United Stages bays from these countries more than twice as much as at selfs to them. Taking into consideration also the West Indies, from which we said $20,000,000 in 1888; it will appear that the balatice of trace against the United States in its dealings with the mations south reached nearly $100,000,000. These figures, however, which are taken from the last reports are unusually favorable to this country, and the average balance against the United States for a number of veurs has been 120 million dollars annually. Since 186. he United States has bought $2,000,000,000 from the countries south and sold them only $600,000,000 of manufactures. The deficit of the United States, which had so he made up in money, has been $120,000,000,000 of manufactures which from the ferro a Br. 2, sugar from the Vest Andies, and tropical productions for every kind from the other countries south, but they have taken only sin insignificant amount of our manufactures or productions in exchange. the European producers who new moropolize them.

Difficulties of the gravest character stend in the why of reaching these ends, problems of diploinacy and politics as well as of commerce. Mr. Blaine and a few other fursightee public men have long upprecated the surpassing importance of trade with the countries south, and have studied for years the problem which it presents. The meeting of the congress of American nations marks one preliminary step for which they have labored, and it is now certar that the question of in proved trade relations will receive earnest and general attention throughout the three Americas. Nothing more can be expected of the present congress than that it will inaugurate a general informational agilation and discussion of the question and if it succeeds in that it will do wel.

KENTUCKY COLONELS.

Why They are so Numerous in the Educ-Grass State.

Louisville Pool,

It is somewhat hard for an outside bar-barian to understand why "colo jels" aroso plentiful in Kentucky. In the first place, Kentucky furnished a great many soluiers, both to the Northern and to the Southern ar-mies, during the war, and nature its some of Kentucky furnished a great many soluiers, both to the Northern and to the Southern armies, during the war, and naturally some of these soldiers are sure enough colones by rank and service. Others, who were minor officers, or perhaps high privates, are now duthed colonels by way of courtesy. Then we have a very few colonels who hold over from the Mexican war, and there are enough colonels of militia, like the Louisville Legion, who come by their titles honestly. The Governor of Kentucky has the privite ge of appointing persons on his staff with the rank of colonel. These colonels are expected to look pretty and martinal at the Governor beads a procession. The last duty frequently gives them great pair and anxiety. There are scores and sobres of these governor-stiff colonels in this proud old consmonwealth.

Some executives have been more lavish than others in the distribution of these governor. That kindly old gendeman. Governor Luke Blackbure, M. D.; was fond of creating colonels. During his term in made some sixty colonels in the city of Louisville alone, if I rember the figures correctly. There are various reasons which en-

I trust these facts will make it somewhat clearer to the wantlering Northorner why colonels are so plentiful in Kentucky. But there are other reasons. Many prominent citizens are honored with this complimentary title sin ply as a recognition of their merit by the community. Thas every man who conducts a large distillery is igno facto a colonel, for nature, Colonel John M. Atherton or Colonel Tom Sheriey. Every prominent railroad official is also a colonel, as Colonel Asheri of Caroth. Every man with a government office is a colone, as Colonel George Du Re le Every great editor is a colonel, the Colonel Henry Watterson. The chief of the police department is a de facto colonel, as Colonel Wood. Then there are other gentlemen, who are colonels because no other tillef is them. The only men proud to be called captain are the commanders of steambouts, the captains of fire companies, the conductors of railroad trains and the effects in the Salvation Army. The title of mi jor is comparatively rare, and, therefore, is really more of a distinction than colonel. Only prominent people, who have seen actual service, learn the title; for instance, Mejor Ed. Haghes and Major J. Washington Wann. But still, if you call a major a colonel he is not likely to get mad at you. was the moving cause with must of his associates, and his speach sounds like the pica of a nan who leels the need of vindicating the action by a different reason.

It is simply astounding that, while Mr. Gurtis, was the defender and apologist of Mr. Cleveland as a reformer, he should be so rancorous in his denunciation of General Harrison. Take a single litustration. There is no test so clear and conductive as the composition of the civil service communities. Mr. Cleveland appointed among its members an avowed hide-bound spollaman, who did his worst for he life sillits good action. General Harrison, on the other hand, selected the most pronounced reformers be could find. Yet Mr. Curtis stors over this significant fact with a single indusion, and studiously avoids the chvious contract. It is this surprising what of cancor and fairness which marks the address throughout and which is intal to the position to the position of Mr. Curt s. He presents a distorted statement and an unjust view. We believe it in susceptible of actions provided the profit of through specific facts that by every hair test General Harrison is a intrust reformer than Mr. Glevenland; we believe that in intellectual, moral and political honesty he is immeasurably superior; and weam Mr. Curtis who was the apologist of one becomes the assailant of the other, we only look back and lament the Curts of other days:

A novel proposition for dealing with the liquor traffic comes from Peoria, lll. A responsible f.rm lins offered the municipal anti-orities $75,000 a year for the exclusive privilege of sel.ng liquor in that city. It guarantees that the saloons shall be as free from objection as they can be made; that they shall not be placed near a school or church; that they shall be closed at 10 P. M. and all day kunday, and that no liquor will be sold to minors or drunken persons. They propose to secure the city and prove their good faith by giving bond for $200,000. This attenut to secure a liquor monopoly is worthy c some consideration. If properly man aged such a scheme could likely be made to baying a much larger revenue than rany other fice is severem. A Bom unce in Real Life. St. Louis Dispatch New York Herald his Miller was married twenty-fiv Louis Miller was married twenty-five years ago in St. Petersburg, Russia, to a young and beautiful weman. Shortly afterward he came to St. Louis and amassed a fortune. Eventually their correspondence eased through defective hotel service in Russia. Each, believed the other dead. It fact, he once received a letter announcing his wife's death, and remarried. A few days ago the first wife came to this city and found, hor husband. Upon explanation being made wife No. 2 agreed to withdraw in favor of No. 1, and yesterday she began a friendly divorce suit.

THE STANDARD LIGHT IG CO.

Pasco, the metropolis of the upper Columbia River Valley, is situated on a level plateau, which gently slopes to the Columbia River, the Mississippi of the Pacific Coast, and near the junction of the grand Snake River, which rises in the mountain range of the Yellowstone National Park, with the Columbia, and also within some five miles of the junction of the Yakima River, the "laughing water" of Washington, which rises in the Cascade Range and leaps on in its rapid descent to the Columbia, thus forming one of the grandest junctions of rivers on the Pacific Coast, thus making Pasco their commercial and shipping center.

"Some day a large city will grow up at the junction of the Snake and Columbia Rivers.

THE MARVELOUS success of the Pasco Land Company's first sale of business lots during the past five days is evidence that other people also believe that Pasco has a great future.

The magnificent location for a great city to grow where Pasco now stands can readily be seen at a glance upon this map.

SEATTLE'S WATER FRONT.

Esstern Speculators Claim It Is Unoccupied Public Domain.

They Have Filed Upon it With Government Scrip, and How Say They Are Beady To Be Bought Off.

Boattle Post-Intelligencer

Will the scrip located on the harbor front of Beattle hold, or will the ultimate decision of the higher court protect the vasi amount of property that has been acquired and rendered valuable beyond estim and rendered valuable beyond estimate by corporations and persons interested in the commercial and general advancement of eatly canvassed on the streets at the present and where it was located There seemed to be a pretty general idea at that time the scrip, which was principally Valentine, was valuable property, and its prices rose rapidly until certain pieces were quoted as high as $200. The first fots offered had been fold as low as $15 per acra. The filings of Yalentine scrip were followed by those of Girard and Shoux, and then came the McKee scrip To the meantime the interest in the hold-

Scrip were followed by those of Girard and Shoux, and then came the McKee sorip

In the meantime the interest in the holders and filers of scrip at the land office created a feeling of uneasiness among the occapants of the property filed upon, and legal talent was soon employed preparing protests against the applications made for scrip The protests were duly filed at the land office with a request for a hearing. An equal confidence with that shown by the holders of the scrip was displayed by those filing protests. On the one hand filers of sorre approached occupants of the water fro it and made certain offers to re linquish the claims. These were met by the present holders of the property with no more serious consideration than that it was presumed the scrip holders would allow the ratroad companies to run for a few days and have their rolling stock when the new owners should move in. Both parties, in short, are confident that their opponents have no legal status, at least that a final hearing will be favorable to the side presentling its case.

From the first filing by Frank Burns, jr. on January 9, 1889, until the one made yesterday by Jacob O Mann, of Tacoma, for two 40-acre places of section 31, township 21, range 3 east, there have been some forty-flys applications. Against tness there are about three-times as many protests. Yesterday there, were protests made against as follows. By the beattle Electric Light Company, Washington Iron Works Company, Seattle Improvement Company, H. L. Yesler, George F. Desthorn John Collins, David Gilmore and E. C. Kilbourne When to these are added the names of the Northern Pacific Ratroad Company, Columbia & Puget Sound Railroad Company, Columbia & Puget Sound Railroad Company, American Lumber Company, Stetson & Fost Mill Company, the list of projective is compeled to date.

Some idea of the immense amount of properly field upon in the Seattle harbor alone may be gained when it is learned that the scrip lithings cover the water front all the way from Smith's cove north, to at the intersection Stewart streets.

Disinterested persons are cautious about the ultimate out-Disinferested persons are cautious about advancing opinions as to the ultimate outcome of this exceedingly interesting and important question. There are many who see much to favor the scripholders, and they lay considerable stress upon the decision of the general land office, made September 6 believing that the decision of the scattle land office would have been upheld had there not been u preponderance of law in favor of the scrip. On the other hand, there are those—and they are the great majority—who argue that the government will never allow persons who innocently acquire property and develop into a point where it becomes an integral part of a lage city's commerce and prosperity to be in prived of that property upon technical points of law, which the occupants could not possibly forcese at the time of purchase. The subject is one of deep interest to the city of Seutile as well as the occupant of the properties brought in question, and a decision on the matter is anxiously awaited.

THE VALUE OF M'ERR SCR P.

the properties brought in question, and a decision on the matter is anxiously awaited.

The boldest of all these filings was that offered by Evan T Warner of Washington, D C, of McKee serip, his applies ion covering about half a mile of the harbor front from Colman's wharf to the meander line, which is described by metes and bounds. It includes from forty to fifty acres taking in the Colman and Umon street wharves and much other valuable property along the most valuable most covering of McKee serip, which now covers 120 acres of the most valuable most period to the meander line, water iron to Seattle. He was interviewed by a reporter just before leaving Seattle for his home in the East.

"The especial ment of McKee scrip over all others," said Mr. Warner in answer to a question 'is that it in be located on any unappropriated or reserved last do the United States by the owners or the holders thereof. Valentine and other varieties have certain limitations but McKee scrip has none.

"At what value do I place this scrip? It will perhaps surprise you to form that be force the amended act granting this scrip was passed last Alarch my associates and myself were offered $5000 for every acres of it we secured. If tell you why i is so valuable. In a speech before the bourd he expressed great surprise at the remarkable improvement of Lastern Oregon and the advancement of L3 Grande since his last visit four years ago. At that time Lia Grande was a small village of but a few bundred in population. It has since extended its limits over four times the area of the original town site and although visited by a destructive free last such away all the business perion of the town, has been rebuilt more substantially than before, and has quadrupled its population. It business interests have increased from a dozen businers boures to a full representation in all lines of trade and its simpling in terests are now second only to Portland on the line of the O.R. & P. railway. And even with all this marked increase, the town nay only fairly commenced to develop with the vast extent of rich country tributary to it.

A large amount of grain is now being received for shipment and storage. One day last week fortly seven four horse teams were counted in line at the Pacino Cosst Compuny's elevator, and sas high as 6000 bushels of wheat his been received at this elevator in one day. They now have over 50 000 bushels held in storing for farmers who deare to wait for a rate in the nurket. Frank Bros' elevator is received at this elevator in one day. the resources of the pountry and La Grande's prospects for becoming a considerable city. It has already been clearly demonstrated that the money has not been spent in your, and the people do not propose to stop at this but intend to keep right on striking from the shoulder till the whole country shall be made acquainted with the fact that La Grande has the natural streamings and the becking, and its people have the fatth and the determination to place it among the leading interlor cities of the Northwest. They realize that that is not the work of a day or a week, but that they have a solid foundation to work on, and calculate to 'got there'' Such a determination as this, coupled with the fact that La Grande is the commercial center of 5000 sourse miles of as good country as there is on the earth, and that it is a every opportunity and facility for rapid growth, and in fact has within the past twelve months shown more rapid advancement than any other piace of squal population in the state, will certainly bring the town to the front during the couning year mipse rapidly than it did in the pist
